Every course runs face to face or online

Option 1

Face to face, a 6-hour day

Usually 10am to 4pm, in your building or a venue you choose, for up to 60 people. Time for every story and every activity, with practice in pairs and small groups.

Option 2

Live online, a 2-hour keynote

On Teams or Zoom, for up to 60 people. Luke gives the keynote, takes questions in the chat throughout and answers them live at the end. For teams who can't give a full day.

Not sure which? Try it online first, then get 20% off the face to face day. Details are with the fees.

Section 2

How we teach

What happens in the room, and what your team keeps afterwards.

- Story, theory and action
- What every delegate gets
- The course online, on any device

How we teach: Story, Theory, Action

Every Care Leaders Learning course, keynote, workbook and online lesson follows the same three steps.

Story

A real moment from care, told from the young person's side.

Theory

The thinking that explains it, with honest evidence.

Action

Something to practise and use at work the next day.

Every time

A story from care, the theory behind it, and a tool your team uses the next day.

What every delegate gets

Face to face or online. All included in the fee.

Workbook

for life

Stories, tools and space to plan. Theirs to keep.

Recording

12 months

A recording of the session to watch again for 12 months.

The course online

Why choose us

Who builds the training, and who delivers it.

- Why us
- Your facilitator

Why choose The Care Leaders Learning

Training built by people who have lived in care and people who have led services.

Lived and professional experience

Founded and led by Luke Rodgers BEM, a care experienced leader. Every course is written by people who have been in care and people who have run, redesigned and inspected children's services. Your team hears both sides.

Inside national policy

We led the national engagement on England's new fostering standards for the Department for Education. Our training reflects what the standards expect.

Learning that carries on after the day

A workbook for life, the recording and 12 months online. Your team keeps going back to it.

Honest about the evidence

We say what the research shows, and where it is still limited.

2,700+ learners on The Care Leaders Online

From care leaver to care leader

Your facilitator

Luke Rodgers BEM

Luke went into care at 10. He has spent his career inside children's services as a consultant, trainer and keynote speaker, and is CEO of The Care Leaders.

He has worked with councils nationally, including Durham County Council, where he put NVR into 11 children's homes and trained 120 residential staff, online and face to face.

He led the national engagement on England's new fostering standards for the Department for Education.

He is a former Knowledge Equity Fellow at Saïd Business School, University of Oxford, and was awarded the British Empire Medal in 2018 for commitment to children and families.

Luke facilitates every course. Face to face he leads every part. Online, he gives the keynote and answers your questions live.

On stage

45+ keynotes since the start of 2024

4,000+ delegates have heard Luke speak since 2024

400 people in the largest single room so far

"Nothing was as transformative as hearing Luke speak about his life."
